PRESENTS

WINDRUSH: HISTORY THROUGH PROSE AND POETRY

WITH

BURT CAESAR
NAIROBI THOMPSON
Q&A LED BY ARTHUR TORRINGTON

TUESDAY 7 JULY 2020
7:30pm to 9:30pm

Burt Caesar is a British actor, broadcaster and director for stage and television, who was born in St Kitts and moved to England with his family as a child. His career has encompassed acting in films and on stage, including in Shakespearian roles, and many plays for BBC Radio Four.

Nairobi is a prolific writer and a passionate performance poet. She is an all-round talent performing different styles of poetry from traditional rhyme to colourful blank verse patois. As Windrush Foundation Poet in Residence she writes and recites her poetry to support events that celebrate the unique contributions made by the African and Caribbean Diaspora.
