

CELEBRATING THE WINDRUSH GENERATION

The Windrush Foundation Event on 21st September features Akeera Belfon-George (Junior Calypso Monarch), Almaz (Soloist), Lara Grace Ilori (Poet) who will add their unique artistic talents to this heritage event.

Akeera won the Notting Hill Carnival Junior Calypso Monarch in 2024 with a song on the legacy of the Windrush Generation. She is an advocate for education, cultural heritage and youth and community engagement. Also, she is the Youth Council Cabinet Lead for Education in her borough.

Almaz, born and raised in Brixton, is a teacher and musician whose love for reggae music runs deep. Her sound is a vibrant tribute to her roots, blending rhythm and message in a way that celebrates both heritage and future. A proud advocate for cultural expression, Almaz brings warmth, soul and purpose to every performance.

Lara Grace Ilori, born and raised in Streatham, South London, has headlined at venues across the UK, including Brixton House, Bush Theatre, and Empower Poetry, and has developed her craft in New York, South Carolina, and Nigeria. A Cultural Leader at Poetic Unity and a Soho Theatre Writer's Lab alumna.
